OUTWITTED BY THE LADY PAS-SENGERS.

Taking the Valuables of the Men and Conceal ng Them About Their Persons-Crimes.

St. Louis, Mo., December 12. -About 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon the upper floor of the A. F. Shapleigh & Caldwell Hardware Company's extensive establishment, occupying stores numbering from 414 to 472 North Main street, ie i with a great crash. The floor was covered with heavy agricultural machiners and in its fall carried d.wn the third floor, stocked with shelf goods, and the second floor, filled with sample goods. In a moment or two the debris caught fire, presumably from the overturned stoves, or possibly from the furnace in the basement, and with startling rapidity the flames shot up through the broken timbers to the roof There were five fire walls between the different storerooms, but all had openings in them through which the fremen M DE A RUSH, and in a very short time the entire building was a mass of fiercely burning flames, and every window and door was belching forth great clouds of heavy black smoke. Shortly after this the roof over No. 422 and the north wall on Vine street fell; then a part of the front or Main street wall toppled down, the interior floors of the whole building followed in rapid succession, and by 4 o'clock p. m. nothing was left but broken walls and a great mass of burnt and ruined goods and twisted and destroyed machinery. The five was confined to the Shapleigh building and property, which was, be-fore the walls and rof fell in, in imminent danger was but slightly dam-aged. At the time of the crain some fif y employes were scattered through the building, but so far as can now be learned all but two of them are accounted for, and it is thought that these two will turn up later. Several

RECEIVED SLIGHT INJURIES in the way of bruises and cuts, but of those who are reported none are seriously hurt. The firm dealt largely in sporting guns, pistols and small am munition and during the fire there was a vary active fasillade by explod-ing cartridges, which created some alarm in the crowd present, but nobody is known to have been hurt by stray bulle's. The report that dynamite cartridges had also exploded seems to have been unfounded. The house carried a heavy stock, valued at the present time at about $500 000 What part of this, if any, can be saved is not now known, but the probabili-ties are that it is all rained. The inamounts to $400,000 and is divided among 100 companies, chiefly Eastern and foreign, in sums ranging from $2500 to $5000.

The Victims.

Sr. Louis, Mo., December 12.—The search for the bodies of the two victime of the catestrophe which dethe A. F. Shapleigh & Cantwell Hardware Company's establishment yesterday was begun today. Streams of water have been poured upon the mass of debris all day, but the ruios are still so hot that search can be made only in places where they have cooled off sufficiently to per-mit it. The bodies of neither of the two mer, of whom nothing has been seen since the fire, have as yet been found, and it is believed that all traces of them have been obliterated.

An Old Woman Murdered by a Body Suatcher.

Baltimore, Mo., December 13.— Early Friday evening a negro man brought to Maryland University, on Lombard street, the body of a white woman and left it with Anderson Perry, the colored janitor, saying he would call again for $15, the price agreed upon. The body was taken to be prepared for keeping until needed for dissection, but it was found that the head was bornibly crushed and there were two wounds in the left breast. The police were at once notified. Yesterday a post mortem examination was made. Physicians stated positively that the wounds were made after death, leaving the inference that it was a simple case of body snatching and that the work had been done by a novice. Today, however, the body was identified as that of Emily Brown, a woman 60 years old, who for the past six months has been boarding with a colored family in the western section of the city. She was of dissipated habits and lived by begging. She was at home three hours before her body was brought to the university, and it is now evident she was brutally murdered for the price her body would bring for use on the dissecting table. Perry, the janitor who received the body, denies he ever saw the woman, but he is known to have been a boarder at the same house and to have eaten breakfast with her on the morning of the murder, and was today arrested as an accissory. Late to-night John Ross and Albert Hawkins, both colored, were arrested and confessed that they killed the woman at the instigation of Janitor Perry. Ross smashed her head with a brick and Hawkins held her and stabbed her through the heart.

A Bank Cashier Before the Mast. LOUISVILLE, KY., December 12.—A pecial says: The talk of Hopkinsspecial says: ville, Ky., is the reported compromise by the attorneys of James A. Wallace's defalcation of $56,000 to the Bank of Hopkinsville. Wallace was cashier and is said to have lost the bulk of the money in wheat speculations. On January 1st, 1884, he took $14,000 and disappeared and a large reward has been standing for his capture. The terms of the compromise are the payment of $17,366 to the bank, the sureties and Wallace being released from civil prosecution. An effort will be made to secure a pardon for Wallace that he may be exempt from criminal prosecution. Wallace was a prominent church member, and is supposed to have turned sailor since his defalcation.

A Gang of Tramps Raise a Riot. SHENANDOAH, PA , December 12 -A band of about thirty tramps who have been making their headquarters just outside the borough limits during the past few weeks, came into Shenandoah last night and raised a riot in a saloon and probably fatally injured three men. Four of the tramps were ejected from the saloon for using abusive language, and shortly afterward re-turned with reinforcements and attacked the party in the house. James McKeen was horribly backed with a ragor and two miners were beaten with bottles and glasses into insensibility. Several arrests were made.

THE NEW BAIL BOND Ordinance of Chicago Annoys Prisoners Convicted for Petty offenses.

CHICAGO, December 13 .- The principal police stations were unusually crowded yesterday, it being the first Sunday on which the new ordinance relative to bail bonds was in force.
Down stairs in the cells were men who had committed trifling offenses. were clamoring to be let out. Many who had sent notes to influential friends were denouncing these friends because they had not secured their re-lesse. The desk sergeants were kept busy answering the questions of men who dropped in to see mit they could secure the release of prisoners by put-ting up a deposit Many of these had secured the release of toeir friends on former occasions. They were shocked when they heard the provisions of the new law. Some tried to intimidate the police authorities into releasing their friends, while others tried to effect their purpose by pleading The new law provides that only a property owners can sign a bond, and the only other alternative is to deposit $200 with the station keeper. A clause in the ordi-nance, which has been overlooked, allows the police captains and lieutenanta to take special deposits smaller than those specified by the law. The matter is left discretionary with the officials. At Harrison street several $50 deposits have been taken for men who have committed small have been $100.

GENTLEMEN—I was greatly troubled with neuralgia of my breast since last fall, having at times to keep my bed. My blood seemed to be in a bad condition. I had a sore on my cheek that I thought was cancerous, also some peculiar sores or growths on my hands, which, at times, resembled a rooster's spur, with quite a number less selevated, but hard and bony like. This had been constant with me for overfive years. I have now been using Acid Iron Earth for two weeks and these bony protuberances haveall come off and my face is alout well. The neuralgia is entirely gone and my appetite and strength have greatly improved. Grottkan, the Socialist, in a Predicament.

Milwauker, Wis, December 13 —
In the Municipal Court this moraing Judge Sloan took up the case of Paul Gottkau, the socialist agitator, who, during the progress of his trial last week, published an article and poem in his paper, the Arbeiter Zeitung, insulting to the presiding judge. After considerable argument on both sides, Judge Sloan gave Grottkau until 2 o'clock this afternoon to show why he should not be punished for contempt of court. The belief is general that Grottkau is in a tight place and will not escape punishment.

ANSWERS THE EDITOR OF THE "ARGONAUT,"

To Whom He Traced the Vile Slanders of Which He Has Been So Long the Victim.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., December 13,-Mgr. Capel has issued the following statement concerning certain articles published respecting him in the Eastern States and England: To the Public:

After two months of diligent investigation, aided by disclosures made under peremotory orders from a rep-tesentative of a New York journal, I have been able to trace the authors of the anderous stones circulating recareful comparison it has been found that the editor of the Argonaut, a newspaper published in this city, and which is a rabid hater of the Pope, has persistently indulged in personal lies concerning me. Ha lately announced I had become a Protestant, and at a sub-equent period he invited those who desired to know my address to call at the Argonaut office, and also referred them to a distinguished attorney of Sacramenta for my manner of life Prefiting by this offer of inof life Profiting by this offer of incommittee, the reporter succommittee, and the concerning me in
